

NOTIFICATION

It has been brought to our notice that some attempts are being made by some unscrupulous elements claiming to be the agents of management and thereby facilitating the process of admission to the various management and other programs at the institute. Please note that all admissions are only through the office of the Director.

We request you not to entertain any such call/inducement from any person claiming to be agent of the management for the purpose of admission. In case of any query, please get in touch with the Director.

This is just a precautionary notice.
